

Netball

All rules will be applied within small game formats. There will now be a focus on the playing positions on the court, with attention given to the roles and responsibilities of each.

Tennis

There will be plenty of match play this summer term, with the group size slightly decreasing to sure this is maximised. All techniques and rules will be taught and applied.

For further information on how to book, please email Adam on, info@parktopro.com