Teacher & SENDCo Required From September 2021

Salary MPS/UPS depending on qualification and experience

The Governors of this outstanding, friendly, popular and well-resourced school wish to appoint an enthusiastic and inspirational teacher.

We wish to appoint a motivated and enthusiastic SENCo who will:

- Be willing to support and develop our Catholic ethos
- Be committed to ensuring that all children make progress
- Be confident assessing and evaluating children's work
- Be confident in managing the strategic leadership of support for disadvantaged pupils including SEN, pupil premium and pupil premium plus
- Have QTS and hold, or be working towards, a SENDCO qualification
- Have high aspirations for themselves, an interest in pedagogy and a commitment to further development
- Contribute to our supportive, committed and successful staff team and to the wider life of the school

We offer:

- a warm and welcoming school community
- experienced and well trained support staff
- a commitment to your professional development
- polite, motivated and well behaved children

Visits to the school are warmly welcomed.
